RED HOUSE ARTISTS: WORKS BY NOAH DOELY, TAYLOR HANSEN, MONICA SANGUINO, AND ANGELA WASESKUK
 September 19- November 27, 2024

Red House Studios, Hearst's artist residency program, has provided local artists with creative space for five years. Located next to the main Hearst Center building, its residents range from university professors to local artists. In partnership with the UNI Art Department and the Cedar Falls Art & Culture Board, one UNI alumnus annually receives subsidized studio rent, speaks at the art department's SMART Session series, and exhibits their work at UNI's Kamerick Gallery. This new exhibition at the Hearst showcases the collective work of current and recent residents, exploring their vision and practice.

NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW
 September 26-November 27, 2024

2024 marks the 60-year anniversary of the NAR coming to Iowa, the magazine is featuring all Iowan visual artists in their fall issue. Visit the Hearst to get a look at the original artworks in the gallery.

DENIS ROUSSEL: PERMANENCE AND IMPERMANENCE

December 19, 2024-March 9, 2025

Works by chemist and photographer Denis Roussel are featured in this exhibition, which is presented with support and guidance from the late artist's family and friends. The collection is co-curated by Waterloo Center for the Arts Curator and former UNI Gallery of Art Director Darrell Taylor and UNI Associate Professor Matthew Wilson.

PERMANENT COLLECTION FEATURING OSIE L. JOHNSON

September 26-November 27, 2024

An Illustrator and Graphic Designer, former UNI Assistant Professor of Art Osie L. Johnson employs his own brand of Pop Art inspiration to regale viewers in a satirical yet personal presentation of his perspective living in 1990s Iowa. Drawn from the Hearst Permanent Collection, the UNI Permanent Art Collection, and private collectors, some of these paintings and prints will be shown together again for the first time in 20 years.

SIDIAN LIU: THE CONCH GIRL PROJECT

December 19, 2024- March 9, 2025

Sidian Liu is an image-based artist, translator, and home builder. Her practice reacts to a sense of displacement by utilizing images, text, performance, installation, and socially engaged methods. Her works address the issue of social barriers, and through her work she focuses on the participation and interaction of the public, facilitating intimacy from a distance while establishing a space to feel belonging through an exchange of trust and respect.

CLASSROOM LEVEL GALLERY

Introducing a new feature at the Hearst: a bimonthly rotation of local artists showcasing original 2D art available for viewing and purchase. Follow us on Facebook for updates on the latest artists on display!

All events and programs listed are free and open to the public. Thanks to our partners and sponsors.

MARY SWANDER PRESENTS: SQUATTERS ON RED EARTH

THE HEARST FILM SCENE

Doors open at 7 p.m. Movie starts at 7:15 p.m.

MAE LATTA HALL

The Hearst Film Scene is for cinephiles, film buffs, and anyone interested in movies. As part of this program we will be screening films, hosting conversations and featuring art that incorporates moving pictures. Our first film events kick off this October...

Tuesday, October 8 PANEL DISCUSSION THE ART OF THE SCARE: THE HISTORY OF HORROR FILMS AND OUR FASCINATION WITH FRIGHT

There are some who watch horror films with trepidation and then there are those dark devotees who live for the thrill of the scare. Whether it's a haunted house or a horror film...scary experiences offer us a kind of transcendence by showing us we are part of something beyond the everyday. Learn the history of horror from a small panel of horror devotees. Bring a list of your five favorite horror films to share.

Thursday, October 24 SILENT HORROR CLASSIC NOSFERATU: A SYMPHONY OF HORROR with live musical accompaniment by DATASTREAM

Nosferatu transforms idyllic daylight and structured staircases into alluring mysteries of the dark; all-the-while contrasting innocence with unspeakable evil. This is the quintessential silent horror film! The story is one that soothes the heart while simultaneously activating massive amounts of goosebumps. Experience this classic horror flick with a live surround soundtrack and eerie accoutrements provided by the masters of ambient sound Scot Schwestka and Sandy Nordahl (a.k.a. Data Stream). Vampire dress welcome.

CEDAR FALLS COMMUNITY THEATRE AND HEARST CENTER PRESENT...GORILLA THEATRE!

Tuesday, October 22 at 6:00 p.m.

MAE LATTA HALL

The stakes will be high and there will be no net this fall in an unscripted comedy event called... Gorilla Theater. Two improv teams will meet in a comedy showdown where the celebrity judges, chosen from the audience, will award points during the show that will determine which team captain gets to go home with Bingo the Comedy Gorilla! A totally improvised show with lots of audience participation, it will be the first and last time these sketches will ever be performed! It will be bananas!

RED HERRING THEATRE PRESENTS: THE LIFESPAN OF A FACT

Tuesday, October 29 at 6:30 p.m.

MAE LATTA HALL

Written by Jeremy Kareken, David Murrell and Gordon Farrell; Directed by Karen Mitchell; Sponsored by Jones Law Firm, Mike and Rita Waggoner, and Friends of the Hearst.

Synopsis: The Lifespan of a Fact is based on the true story of a renowned essayist and a magazine's eager fact checker locked in a battle of wills as they navigate the lines of fact and truth. The play is based on the book of the same name by essayist John D'Agata and his real-life fact checker, Jim Fingal.

IOWA CHAMBER MUSIC COLLECTIVE CONCERT

Sunday, November 10 at 2:00 p.m.

MAE LATTA HALL

Experience live music featuring compositions by Darius Milhaud, Sergei Rachmaninoff, and more. This diverse group of talented friends founded the Iowa Chamber Music Collective in 2022 as a nonprofit organization. Performers include Daniel Kaplunas, violin; John Chiles, viola; Liudmila Lebedeva, cello; Camille Balleza, piano; Rane Yang, clarinet; Dan Reynolds, piano.

THE MESA DUO CONCERT

Tuesday, December 3 at 7:00 p.m.

MAE LATTA HALL

UNI professors and acclaimed artists Nash Ryder and Sean Botkin formed the Mesa Duo in early 2024. Their purpose is to present the lesser-known works for violin and piano and share fresh interpretations of the classics with listeners.
