ARTIST BIOS

Eric Garcia-March is a dedicated photographer, poet, and educator. His photography captures the profound beauty of the divine while serving as a meaningful tribute to his late father.

John McCormick

“I began photography in 1964. My photographic subjects include landscapes, wildlife, flowers & mushrooms, the Milky Way, dancers, boudoir, pinups, fashion, and travel throughout the world. My photographs have been exhibited at the Westwood Village, California Art Festival, the Clinton County, New York Council for the Arts Gallery, the Lake Placid, NY 1980 Olympics Library, the UNI Gallery in the Kameric Art Building, the Upper Black Hawk Corridor Gallery at Hawkeye Community College, the Hartman Reserve Nature Center, the Hearst Center for the Arts, and the Van G. Miller Adult Learning Center. I made presentations illustrated with my photographs at the Hartman Nature Reserve, The Prairie Rapids Audubon Society, and the Hearst Center for the Arts. “
